

Doctor Julie Scarano Receives Certification Credentials from the American Chiropractic Board of Sports Physicians

LAKE HIAWATHA, NJ, December 29, 2011 - Dr. Julie Lynn Scarano of Santiago Chiropractic Associates has obtained the postgraduate designation of Certified Chiropractic Sports Physician[®] (CCSP[®]) by the America Chiropractic Board of Sports Physicians[™] (ACBSP[™]). The CCSP[®] certification requires the doctor to attend a minimum of 100 hours of a 120 hour postgraduate program. The instruction is specific to physical fitness and the evaluation and treatment of injuries encountered in sports. Following the completion of these hours, the doctor must then take and successfully pass a comprehensive written examination.

This training will aid the doctor in the prevention and treatment of athletic injuries enhancing her diagnostic skills and patient care. The CCSP[®] accreditation exists to provide a uniform standard of education that assures teams and athletes that the doctor has met a minimum level of competency in chiropractic sports medicine. Dr. Scarano joins over 4800 others internationally who hold this designation.

If you have questions regarding a sports injury or are interested in having your sports event covered, please contact Dr. Scarano or Dr. Philip Santiago at Santiago Chiropractic Associates today.
